

Supporting Bread for Life

In cooperation with race sponsor Adult Literacy on the Middle Peninsula, William Schultz and Michael Enz of Gloucester used their participation in the Daffodil Festival 5K to raise funds for the Bread for Life food pantry. The two sought individual sponsorships through race day and ultimately raised $654. Above, Schultz, at left, and Enz, at right, presented their donation to Bread for Life representative Skip Driggs. Schultz is a senior at Gloucester High School and Enz is a senior at Williamsburg Christian Academy.
